Brownstone Technology Solutions Launches Live Online Video Surveillance Demo
Website visitors can now view a live VSS demo on brownstonets.com

(Redondo Beach, CA—September 1, 2009...) Brownstone Technology Solutions launches its first online live video surveillance demo on www.brownstonets.com. The live demo allows users to view 24/7 video surveillance footage, as well as customize their viewing options and screen resolutions. The live demo highlights Brownstone Technology Solution’s wide array of video surveillance products, as well as its virtual guard tours and remote video monitoring services.

CEO Randy Bragg says, “The live video surveillance demo is a great way to show our current customers as well as potential customers the wide array of benefits that surveillance systems offer. We customized the live demo to offer webcam and multiviewer options, as well as options to view a variety of different locations in real time.”

The webcam demo offers 1, 2, and 3 window views, and the multiviewer offers the following screen resolutions: 1024x768, 1280x1024, 1280x800, 1440x900, 1600x1200, 1680x1050, 1920x1080 and 1920x1200. To view the demo please visit: <http://brownstonets.com/vssDemo.aspx>. If there are technical questions or feedback regarding the demo please contact: 310-297-3605.
